What! The middle of May already. Cultivate lightly around those plants and you go back to 6-6-6 with 50% organic again with a dash of sludge. Let's get those plants really lush before the real hot weather takes hold. It will help to shade the root system. If it has been wet watch for any fungus, If you find any there are a number of good fungicides that will do the trick. Ask your garden supply man for suggestions. I prefer sprays to dust. Again keep checking for aphids and butterfly worms at least twice a month. When using insecticides it is advisable to have watered the plants at least 24 hours before spraying and spray before noon to reduce chances of leaf burn.

This stuff could go on and on, but since I don't want to use up all of Jimmie's space - - See you,

- Burt.

OUR PRESIDENT - S. L. SHEPARD

You have heard of that rare specimen of citizen known as a native, will I happen to be one, having been born August 5, 1891 just west of Quincy in the heart of the shade tobacco belt in Gadsden County, Florida.

I entered Uncle Sam's Army in the summer of 1917 and was mustered out at the close of the war in the spring of 1919.

Moved to Pomona Park in Putnam County in 1919 and bought an orange grove in 1920. In 1923 started work as Association Manager in one of the Florida Citrus Exchange packing houses. Continued here until 1929 when the fruit fly put us out of business. Moved to New York City and went into business as a produce broker, remaining there for ten years, selling the business just before the beginning of the second world war. Moved back to Pomona Park and into the production of citrus. Was appointed to the Conservation Department by Governor Spessard Holland and served here during his term as Governor.

Was married June 9th, 1942 to Miss Evelyn Wells of Washington, D.C. We have no children.

Have been a member of the American Legion since the first year of its organization, have held every office on the Post level. Was District Commander of the 5th. District and for the past five years have served on the National Committee of Education and Scholarships.
